

Mining Sector Corporate Social Responsibility and the Management of Local Community in Resource-affected Rural Australia

Robyn Mayes

Barbara Pini

Curtin University of Technology

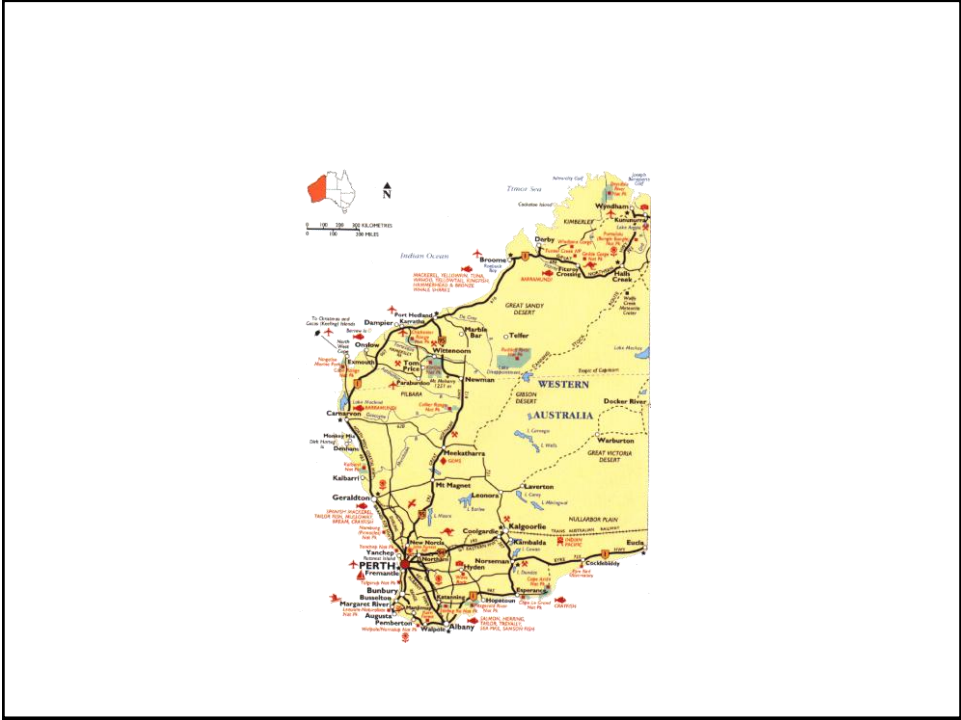

Mining and Local Communities

organizational restructuring mergers and acquisitions temporary and contract labour fly-in/fly-out (fif0)

Mining 'arriving' in extant communities

CSR: Social License to Operate

Management Practice

'Partnership' and adaptation

Engagement with local council

Residential managers (in place)

Committees

Community development

Knowledge gathering (individual, surveys)

Management identities

Reconfigured relationships

Rurality / place